

Steve Fister The Buzz

Official Website: www.stevefister.com

"Fister is a brilliant musician, very well crafted with a tremendous energy. Listening to this makes it difficult to keep sitting in your chair.

You can compare him in energy and enthusiasm to a youthful Eric Clapton".

(Jaap van Eik ALOHA Magazine Holland)

"I love this CD, Steve is a versatile guitarist straight out of the Tommy Bolin, Robben Ford mold". (Review by Ray Fenwick, Get Ready To Rock)

"An excellent player who often reminds me of my friend Roy Buchanan. Really good taste, and great chops".

(Bruce Iglauer, Alligator Records)

"Guitar ace Steve Fister joins the ranks of today's rising guitar superstars, and offers undeniable proof of his stature as a masterful solo artist".

(Robert Silverstein in 21 st Century Guitar)

"Steve Fister has forged a solo style uniquely his own. Playing a form of blues rock fusion, Fister doesn't just blend genres, he creates new ones".

(Bernard Baur, Music Connection)

"Unlike too many who concentrate on merely the technical, Fister is a well-rounded musician for whom the song is what matters. Although technically brilliant when need be, it's never an end in itself. A gifted vocalist as well, he shines in a live setting".

(Nightwatcher for Rock N Roll Universe)

"Steve Fister is a guitar player whose playing exhibits tastefulness and subtlety, as well as ferocious intensity, exhilarating speed, and raw energy".

(The Atomic Chaser ALL ACCESS MAGAZINE)

"Steve Fister as potentially a rocker for every palate".

(Pete Feenstra for "Get Ready To Rock" magazine)

"Steve Fister pulls out another trick from his sleeve, adding vocals to his already incredible fretwork display to create a dynamic brew of bluesy hard rock infused with a pop sensibility".

(Keith Langerman, Rock N Roll Universe)

"Dodgin' Bullets" is a fine piece of rock art on which Fister shows his wide range of influences and skills".

(Stan Novak file under Magazine, Holland)

"Mr. Fister has a lot to offer and it is worth paying attention to what he has to say. Which reminds me – Steve, those vocals are just fine and dandy!"□

(Norman Darwen Blues Art Studio)

"Steve Fister is a technically gifted guitarist that incorporates his playing into a deliciously diverse menu of songs".

(Tunestone.nl)

"Steve Fister is not firing blanks or dodgin' on this record at all.... He fires with the steady hand of a sniper"!

(Edwin van Hoof Hardrock Haven)

"If you like Blues that rock and have one serious groove, it would be in your best interest to check out the Steve Fister Band. One of the best bands to see live in the city of angels".

(The Rocker ALL ACCESS MAGAZINE)

"Steve Fister is a fine guitar instrumentalist and on his new one he also sings up quite a storm". (mwe3.com)

"It's not just the playing style, you have to be buddies, and you have to get along. I did have a guy that was playing with me, Steve Fister, who's real good. He played with me for a little while, but had a prior commitment and he had to stick with that. So since I couldn't get him, I decided to try it three piece".

(Pat Travers in "Monitor" magazine)

"Steve Fister is an extraordinary guitar talent".

(Beth Donahue WKDF, Nashville, TN)

"Steve Fister displays chops aplenty and melody to boot"!

(Matt Bodenhammer Cosmic Cowboy)

"It's so nice to hear in this day and age of 10 million notes a second and recycled riffs, a tasteful, feeling player like you. Credit to you my boy"! John (Thomas, guitarist- Budgie)

"Steve Fister reveals himself to be a multi-dimensional and thoroughly versatile guitarist. He can fire off a machine-gun spray of notes with the best of them, but he also understands subtlety and economy, which is incorporated into his playing with engaging, results". (All Music Guide)

"Steve Fister is a talented, versatile guitarist with a love and respect for the instrument's place in several genres".

(Tom Demalon All Music Guide)

Steve Fister: "Hey tell us where you're hiding Robert! The vocal lines of this guy resemble Led Zeps frontman worthily! Apart from this, we have a cool blues track with nice key alterations"!

(Metal Temple review of Steve Fister's track "Foolin Me")

"Steve Fister's name is well known in the murky dwelling of little known shred masters, and for good reason. This guy can shred! His playing is a strange cross between John Petrucci and Robin Trower, and it has to be heard to be really appreciated."

(House of Shred)
