Steve Fister has toured as a member of Pat Travers Band, Steppenwolf and Lita Ford Band- the latter 2 acts recently made it into VH1's Top 100 Hard Rock Bands of all time.

He has shared the stage with Bon Jovi, Yngwie Malmsteen, and Steve Morse, scored television shows and movies, (once receiving advise from the late John Candy) and has released 8 solo albums.

On his latest album, "Deeper Than The Blues", Steve fuses a blues foundation to all genres of rock, using aggressive licks with direct and honest vocals. He has toured Europe in support of the CD's including support shows with Joe Satriani. "Deeper Than the Blues" is truly an international effort. It was recorded in Los Angeles, The Netherlands, and Sao Paulo, Brazil.

Steve Fister blends the guitar wizardry of Jeff Beck with a bluesy 70's hard rock vibe, punctuated with the melodic sense of The Beatles. (Nightwatcher's House of Rock")

"Guitar ace Steve Fister joins the ranks of today's rising guitar superstars, and offers undeniable proof of his stature as a masterful solo artist".
